Please give a general description of the premises (please read guidance note 1)

The premises formerly operated as the Ref & Whistle until this licence was revoked by the Craven District Council following a review of the premises licence.

Failure identified by the Committee included breaches of social distancing requirements arising from Covid regulations and poor leadership by Mr. Simon Greaves.

The family have reflected upon this decision and the criticisms therein.

This application is submitted by Mrs. Wendy Greaves, Mr. Simon Greaves' wife.

Wendy has completed here APLH qualification and secured her own personal licence. It is proposed that Wendy will act as DPS for the premises and be responsible for the day-to-day operation of the premises.

Mr. Simon Greaves is a skilled tradesman and has his own plumbing business. Mr. Greaves will primarily be engaged in this business.

The Application proposes a renewed operational style which will hopefully be less impacted by Covid regulations. Wendy is fully committed to enforcing strictly the terms of any licence issued and other regulations which may, from time to time, arise.

The proposal is to secure a permission to allow the premises to open from 8am for non-regulated activities i.e. teas, coffees, light breakfast items (depending upon demand).

The Sale of alcohol will not commence until 11am daily and conclude no later than 10pm, the premises will be cleared of customers by 10:30pm.

The modest size, capacity and trading hours of the premises together with the absence of regulated entertainment is intended to minimise the impact of potential noise nuisance arising from the premises or its operation.

An appropriate operating plan is outlined below.

The revocation of the former licence does not prevent this application and we are confident that the Council will not apply an scorched earth policy.

We ask the Community, Officers and Committee to consider each application on its own merits.

What licensable activities do you intend to carry on from the premises?

(Please see sections 1 and 14 of the Licensing Act 2003 and Schedule 1 and 2 to the Licensing Act 2003)

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK {please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy}.
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
