

South Craven Sub Area Site Visits

SITE OS 29

This Site is known as Sutton Park

Figure 1. The site is maintained well and is thought to have sufficient provision for all age groups.

SITE OS30

This site is opposite Burlington Farm, Main Street, Lothersdale.

Figure 2. This is a view to the path around the back of the site that is used by local residents.

Figure 3. View from the path at the top of site shows overgrown flora although the site does look like it has been tidied up.

SITE OS31

This site is known as Amenity Area, Ryeland Road/Park Road, Crosshills.

Figure 4. This site does not have any play provision and is adjacent to the road; the area has uneven relief and is quite small.

SITE OS32

This site is known as Middleton Play ground, Gill Lane, Middleton.

Figure 5. The site has still got a tarmac surface and has limited play equipment.

SITE OS33

This site is known as Playing Field, Main Street, Cononley.

Figure 6. The individual pieces of equipment have safety surfaces.

Figure 7. The site has a Bowling Green adjacent.

Figure 8. A football pitch with goal posts is present as well as a pavilion and a new skate park.

Figure 9. The equipment is in good condition and the site is clean and tidy and has multiple uses.

SITE OS34

This site is known as St Andrews Church, Kildwick.

Figure 10. This site has recently has improvements to increase disabled access to comply with the Disability Discrimination Act.

SITE OS35

This site is known as Recreation Ground, Priest Bank Road, Kildwick.

Figure 11. This site has not been improved since the last visit in 2004, there are benches present and a swing but the rest of the site is undeveloped.

SITE OS37

This site is known as Village Recreation Ground, Cowling.

Figure 12. The site has recently had a Youth Shelter and Skate Park built to increase provision for young people in the area.

Figure 13. The site has play equipment dotted around for older children

Figure 14. An area is fenced off from dog walkers for younger children and it contains more play equipment.

Figure 14. Sign restricting dog fouling and determining the age limit of children allowed in the play area.