

Waltonwrays Crematorium Consultation
January/February 2015

Feedback Summary

Topic	Ministers	Funeral Directors	Councillors
Holding over of coffins	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The majority of respondents had no comments or said they held no views on the matter of the holding over of coffins proposals. Of those that did the following comments were made: • 1 comment - “from my perspective as a priest I would find it difficult to adjust in terms of human dignity” • 1 comment – “if this was decided I would like further information” • 1 comment – “seems sensible to me, but would the funeral directors want to ask the families the question?” 	There were questions around the storage of coffins and 2 of the 3 respondents would have issues with asking the applicant whether they wished to hold over or not. 1 respondent was fully supportive.	1 query regarding if different charges apply but cannot be held over on religious grounds. Good idea